

City of Meriden, CT

The City of Meriden is pleased to announce Timothy Coon as its next City Manager. Mr. Coon comes to Meriden with a distinguished military career, retiring as a Colonel in the United States Army Reserves. His military service includes service as the Battle Watch Captain for the European Mission Control Center, European Command in Germany and as a Logistics Training Officer in Iraq. His military awards include the Legion of Merit, a Bronze Star and a Purple Heart. From 2007 – 2014, Mr. Coon served as a Town Council Member for the Town of Glastonbury, CT and prior to that he served on the Glastonbury Board of Education. Mr. Coon also brings significant experience in public safety, including five years as the Exercise Training Officer for the Connecticut Office of Emergency Management and twenty years' experience as the Director of Field Services/Curriculum Manager for the Police Officer Standards and Training Council, located in Meriden. He has also been a teacher in Vernon and Coventry, teaching English and Social Studies respectively.

Mr. Coon has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Modern European History from the University of Connecticut, a Teaching Certificate in English and Social Studies from Eastern Connecticut State University, a Master of Public Administration Degree from the University of Hartford and a Master of Strategic Studies Degree from the U.S. Army War College.

Mr. Coon is married to Pamela, and has two wonderful daughters, Caitlin and Meredith.