LICENSE CLASSES

CLASS I - A retail food establishment that does not serve a population that is highly susceptible to foodborne illnesses and only offers (A) commercially packaged processed food that (i) is time or temperature controlled for safety and may be heated for hot holding, but (ii) is not permitted to be cooled or (B) food prepared in the establishment that is not time or temperature controlled for safety.

CLASS II - A retail food establishment that does not serve a population that is highly susceptible to food borne illnesses and offers limited menu of food that is prepared, cooked and served immediately, or that prepares and cooks food that is time or temperature controlled for safety and may require hot or cold holding, but that does not involve cooling.

CLASS III - A retail food establishment that (A) does not serve a population that is highly susceptible to food borne illnesses, and (B) has an extensive menu of foods, many of which are time or temperature controlled for safety and require complex preparation, including, but not limited to, handling of raw ingredients, cooking, cooling and reheating for hot holding.

CLASS IV – A retail food establishment that serves a population that is highly susceptible to foodborne illnesses, including, but not limited to, preschool students, hospital patients and nursing home patients or residents, or that conducts specialized food processes, including, but not limited to, smoking, curing or reduced oxygen packaging for the purpose of extending the shelf life of the food.

- Non-Profit Organizations - class distinction same as above. Must show IRS tax-exempt status.
- School/Government Organizations
- Catering Combination* (issued in conjunction with another license class)
 A business involved in the sale or distribution of food and drink prepared in bulk in one geographic location, for service in individual portions at another, or which involves preparation and service of food on public or private premises, not under the ownership or control of the operator of such service.*
