Meriden City Council has passed a Tobacco 21 ordinance, which means that minimum legal sales age of tobacco and vaping products will be raised from 18 to 21. This ordinance goes into effect July 1, 2019.

Meriden's tobacco retailers are encouraged to come to this workshop to learn about the national Tobacco 21 movement, Meriden's new ordinance, and how you can gain compliance and help this important public health movement.

New required Tobacco 21 signage will be distributed at this workshop.

This workshop is hosted and presented by the Meriden Department of Health and Human Services.
