

Josephine Agnello-Veley
Director of Human Resources

City of Meriden, Connecticut

Department of Human Resources

CITY HALL
142 EAST MAIN STREET
MERIDEN, CONNECTICUT 06450
TELEPHONE (203) 630-4037
FAX (203) 630-5882

December 22, 2021

Public Health Nurse 1– Full Time – 35 Hours per week
10 Month School Year
Multiple positions available

Provides professional public health nursing services in a health clinic setting or school health setting. The Public Health Nurse I works under the supervision of the Associate Director of Health and the Director of Health and Human Services.

Qualifications: Applicants must possess a current Connecticut R.N. license. Ability to establish and maintain working relationships with a diverse, multicultural population. Ability to keep records and to prepare clear and concise reports. Public health experience a plus...Must have a current CT driver's license.

Rate of Pay: $33.99

Apply on line at <https://tinyurl.com/meridencareers> and you can e-mail you resumes/applications to humanresources@meridenct.gov. Applications are also available in the Human Resources Department, City Hall, 142 East Main Street. Monday – Friday 8:00am – 5:00pm.

Last Date to Apply: Open until filled

E.O.E

Public Health Nurse I

General Statement of Duties

Provides Professional public health nursing services in health clinic setting or school health setting.

A Public Health Nurse I functionally assigned to clinic services works under the supervision of the Public Health Program Coordinator for clinics; a Public Health Nurse I functionally assigned to school health.

Supervision Received

Will work under the supervision of the Director of Nurses.

Duties and Responsibilities

Plans, implements and evaluated work activities according to department policy.

Establishes priorities within work assignments.

Assigns work to clerical and/or health aide staff, and supervises as appropriate.

Performs varied nursing duties in health clinics, schools and day care centers.

Assists physicians, physician assistants and/or nurse practioners in clinic and/or school settings.

Administers immunizations and health screenings (blood pressure, pulse screening, vision and hearing, hemoglobin, TB testing etc.)

Maintains accurate records.

Prepares narrative and statistical reports as needed and maintains up to date records.

Interprets and complies with laws, regulations and ordinances relating to public health and education.

Participates in nursing staff and in- service meetings.

Investigates and takes appropriate action concerning abuse of children, the elderly, or disabled.

Refer citizens to appropriate community resources.

Additional Responsibilities

Investigate and follow-up all reports of communicable disease, monitor carriers and prepare regular reports.

Public Health Nurse I (continued)

Additional Responsibilities

Work closely with public health school nurses and assist in planning for children referred by school for immunizations, physicals or health issues.

Counsel family and refer family to human service agencies as needed.

Record data, make necessary referrals and follow-up (home visits)

Work with health care providers and community health and human service agencies in meeting the needs of the community.

Administer "Directly Observed Therapy" as needed.

Public Health Nurse I functionally assigned to the school setting will also;

Maintain cumulative health records on all students.

Record data and maintain up to date records (re: follow-up, etc.)

Ensure all immunizations and physical assessment schedules are met in accordance with state mandates.

Plan and participate in school physical examinations and health assessments.

Administer medication and treatment prescribed by physician orders.

Serve as health consultant to students, parents and school personnel.

Monitor students with communicable diseases in school and advise faculty in universal precautions.

Qualifications

Graduation from a recognized nursing school and/or college/university with a degree in nursing.

Licensed by the State of Connecticut to practice as a Registered Nurse.

Ability to establish and maintain effective working relations with those receptive of public health care, co-workers and the general public.

Ability to keep accurate records in a clear and concise manner

Ability to provide statistical reports as required in an accurate and timely manner.

Public Health Nurse I (continued)

Qualifications

Some knowledge of the principles and practices of public health nursing, and of their application to specific diseases and implications of social conditions.

Awareness of legal responsibilities in investigating and enforcing child or elderly abuse complaints.